1. On 22 February 1952, 30 to 40 pontoon carriers with pontoons were seen in Gentzrode near Neuruppin (N 53/Z 49). A unit which had left the post by rail on 18 February returned to the post on 23 February. A troop review held on Schuetzenplatz involved about 5,000 troops with 15 flags from the Fridericus Kaserne and about 1,500 troops with 9 flags from the Franz Kaserne and the See Kaserne. *

** [ ] Comment. The identity of the unit unloaded in Oranienburg cannot be established. [ ] the units loaded on the two trains were components of the heavy AT artillery regiment of the unidentified AT artillery brigade of the Second Cds Mezz Div. As the trains departed via the Berlin freight circuit, they were possibly bound for Jueterbog.
